

Day 2 – 18 July, 2022 (Monday)

Opening Hymn: GLORY TO THEE, MONTFORT

* Glory to Thee, Montfort, the loving preacher
Of Jesus cross and Mary's Rosary
The love of God and of his Holy Mother
Both in Thy heart found a fair sanctuary

The early thoughts of Montfort were for Mary
And in her love he grew ever more strong
Her virtues well he endeavoured to copy
To her sweet self, he desired to belong (*)

How well he loved, to call her, his dear mother
When in her heart, he would pour out his heart
How much he care during life, and forever
Her bounteous power to the whole world impart (*)

Opening Prayer:

O God, who has given us St Louis-Marie de Montfort, who founded this small band of missionaries, may we always be united with one another as we persevere to seek divine wisdom in our daily life, through Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in unity with the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Ant: Praise God in his sanctuary, praise him in his mighty heavens.

Psalm 150

Praise the LORD! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heaven!
Praise him for his mighty works; praise his unequalled greatness!
Praise him with a blast of the ram's horn; praise him with the lyre and harp!
Praise him with the tambourine and dancing; praise him with strings and flutes!
Praise him with a clash of cymbals; praise him with loud clanging cymbals.
Let everything that breathes sing praises to the LORD! Praise the LORD!

Glory be to the Father...

Ant: Praise God in his sanctuary, praise him in his mighty heavens.

A Spiritual Reading from the writings of St. Louis Marie de Montfort– The Love of Eternal Wisdom No. 10

Nothing is more consoling than to know divine Wisdom. Happy are those who listen to him; happier still are those who desire him and seek him; but happiest of all are those who keep his laws. Their hearts will be filled with that infinite consolation which is the joy and happiness of the eternal Father and the glory of the angels (cf. Prov. 2:1-9).

If only we knew the joy of a soul that perceives the beauty of divine Wisdom and is nourished with the milk of divine kindness, we would cry out with the bride in the Song of Songs: "Your love is better than wine" (Song 1:3) better by far than all created delights.

This is especially true when divine Wisdom says to those who contemplate him, "Taste and see" (Ps. 33:9), eat and drink, be filled with my eternal sweetness (Song 5:1), for you will discover that conversing with me is in no way distasteful, that my companionship is never tedious and in me only will you find joy and contentment (Wisd. 8:16).

CLOSING HYMN: O PUREST OF CREATURES

1. O Purest of creatures, sweet Mother, sweet maid,
The one spotless womb wherein Jesus was laid!
Dark night hath come down on us, Mother! and we Look out for thy shining, sweet Star of the Sea!

2. Deep night hath come down on this rough-spoken world,
And the banners of darkness are boldly unfurled;
And the tempest-tossed Church,---all her eyes are on thee;
They look to thy shining, sweet Star of the Sea!

3. He gazed on thy soul, it was spotless and fair,
For the empire of sin---it had never been there;
None ever had owned thee, dear Mother, but He.
And He blest thy clear shining, sweet Star of the Sea!

4. Earth gave Him one lodging; t'was deep in thy breast,
And God found a home where the sinner finds rest;
His home and His hiding-place both were in thee,
He was won by thy shining, sweet Star of the Sea!
