

SCHOOL OF MONTFORTIAN SPIRITUALITY IN FRENCH

ROME, Italy - The virtual sessions on Montfortian Spirituality in French are starting for the third year, under the responsibility of a team composed of religious and lay people of the Montfortian Family, which was created to follow up the FIM session in France. The program that will now be called "School of Montfortian Spirituality" always keeps the same formula: the third Tuesday of the month, reference time: 6 p.m. (Rome time); duration: 1 hour 15 minutes including the welcome, the presentation of the topic and the time for questions and answers. In connection with the theme of the jubilee year, the Montfortian subjects will also be an in-depth study of Hope. In the first session, on January 21, 2025, the theme: "St. Louis Marie, pilgrim of Hope" will be presented by Fr. Santino BREMBILLA, SMM. Participation is free and open to all: just provide your own contact details to receive the LINK by email. After each session you can also request the speakers' text.
